Brief description	Dr. Bangale, the NSS Program Officer, introduced the speakers for the program, namely Mr. Malusare and Mr. Lad. Subsequently, the duo elucidated to the students the process of casting votes through EVMs. They delved into the technological intricacies of both the Electronic Voting Machine (EVM) and the Voter Verifiable Paper Audit Trail (VVPAT) Machine. Furthermore, the students were given a practical, hands-on experience with these machines. The speakers emphasized the significance of transparency and fairness in the election process, attributing it to the application of advanced technology. They actively encouraged students to engage as informed voters and play an active role in the democratic process. The program concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Program Officer Dr. Mrs. N. M. Shaikh.
Outcome	The EVM and VVPAT Machine Demonstration Program for college students can lead to increased civic awareness, enhanced technical knowledge, confidence in voting technology, and a promotion of informed and active participation in elections, fostering responsible citizenship and critical thinking skills.
